Escape

Wonderland

You know you are dreaming. How often do you see a white rabbit in a suite running with an oversized pocket watch? You are far too busy today to be dreaming. Its a big problem. Daydreaming is such a nuisance. Thats why father paid that doctor to help you get out of your dreams. He taught you to think of an escape word phrase and you will wake immediately. What was that word phrase? You need that word phrase to escape this dream. But while you try to remember theres no reason not to enjoy it and follow that rabbit to see where he goes. Follow the rabbit until you can remember the word phrase.

You slip and fall down the rabbit hole following the rabbit. You pass many items as you fall. One stands out from the rest. You count them on your descent. 1,2,1,0,3,2,3.

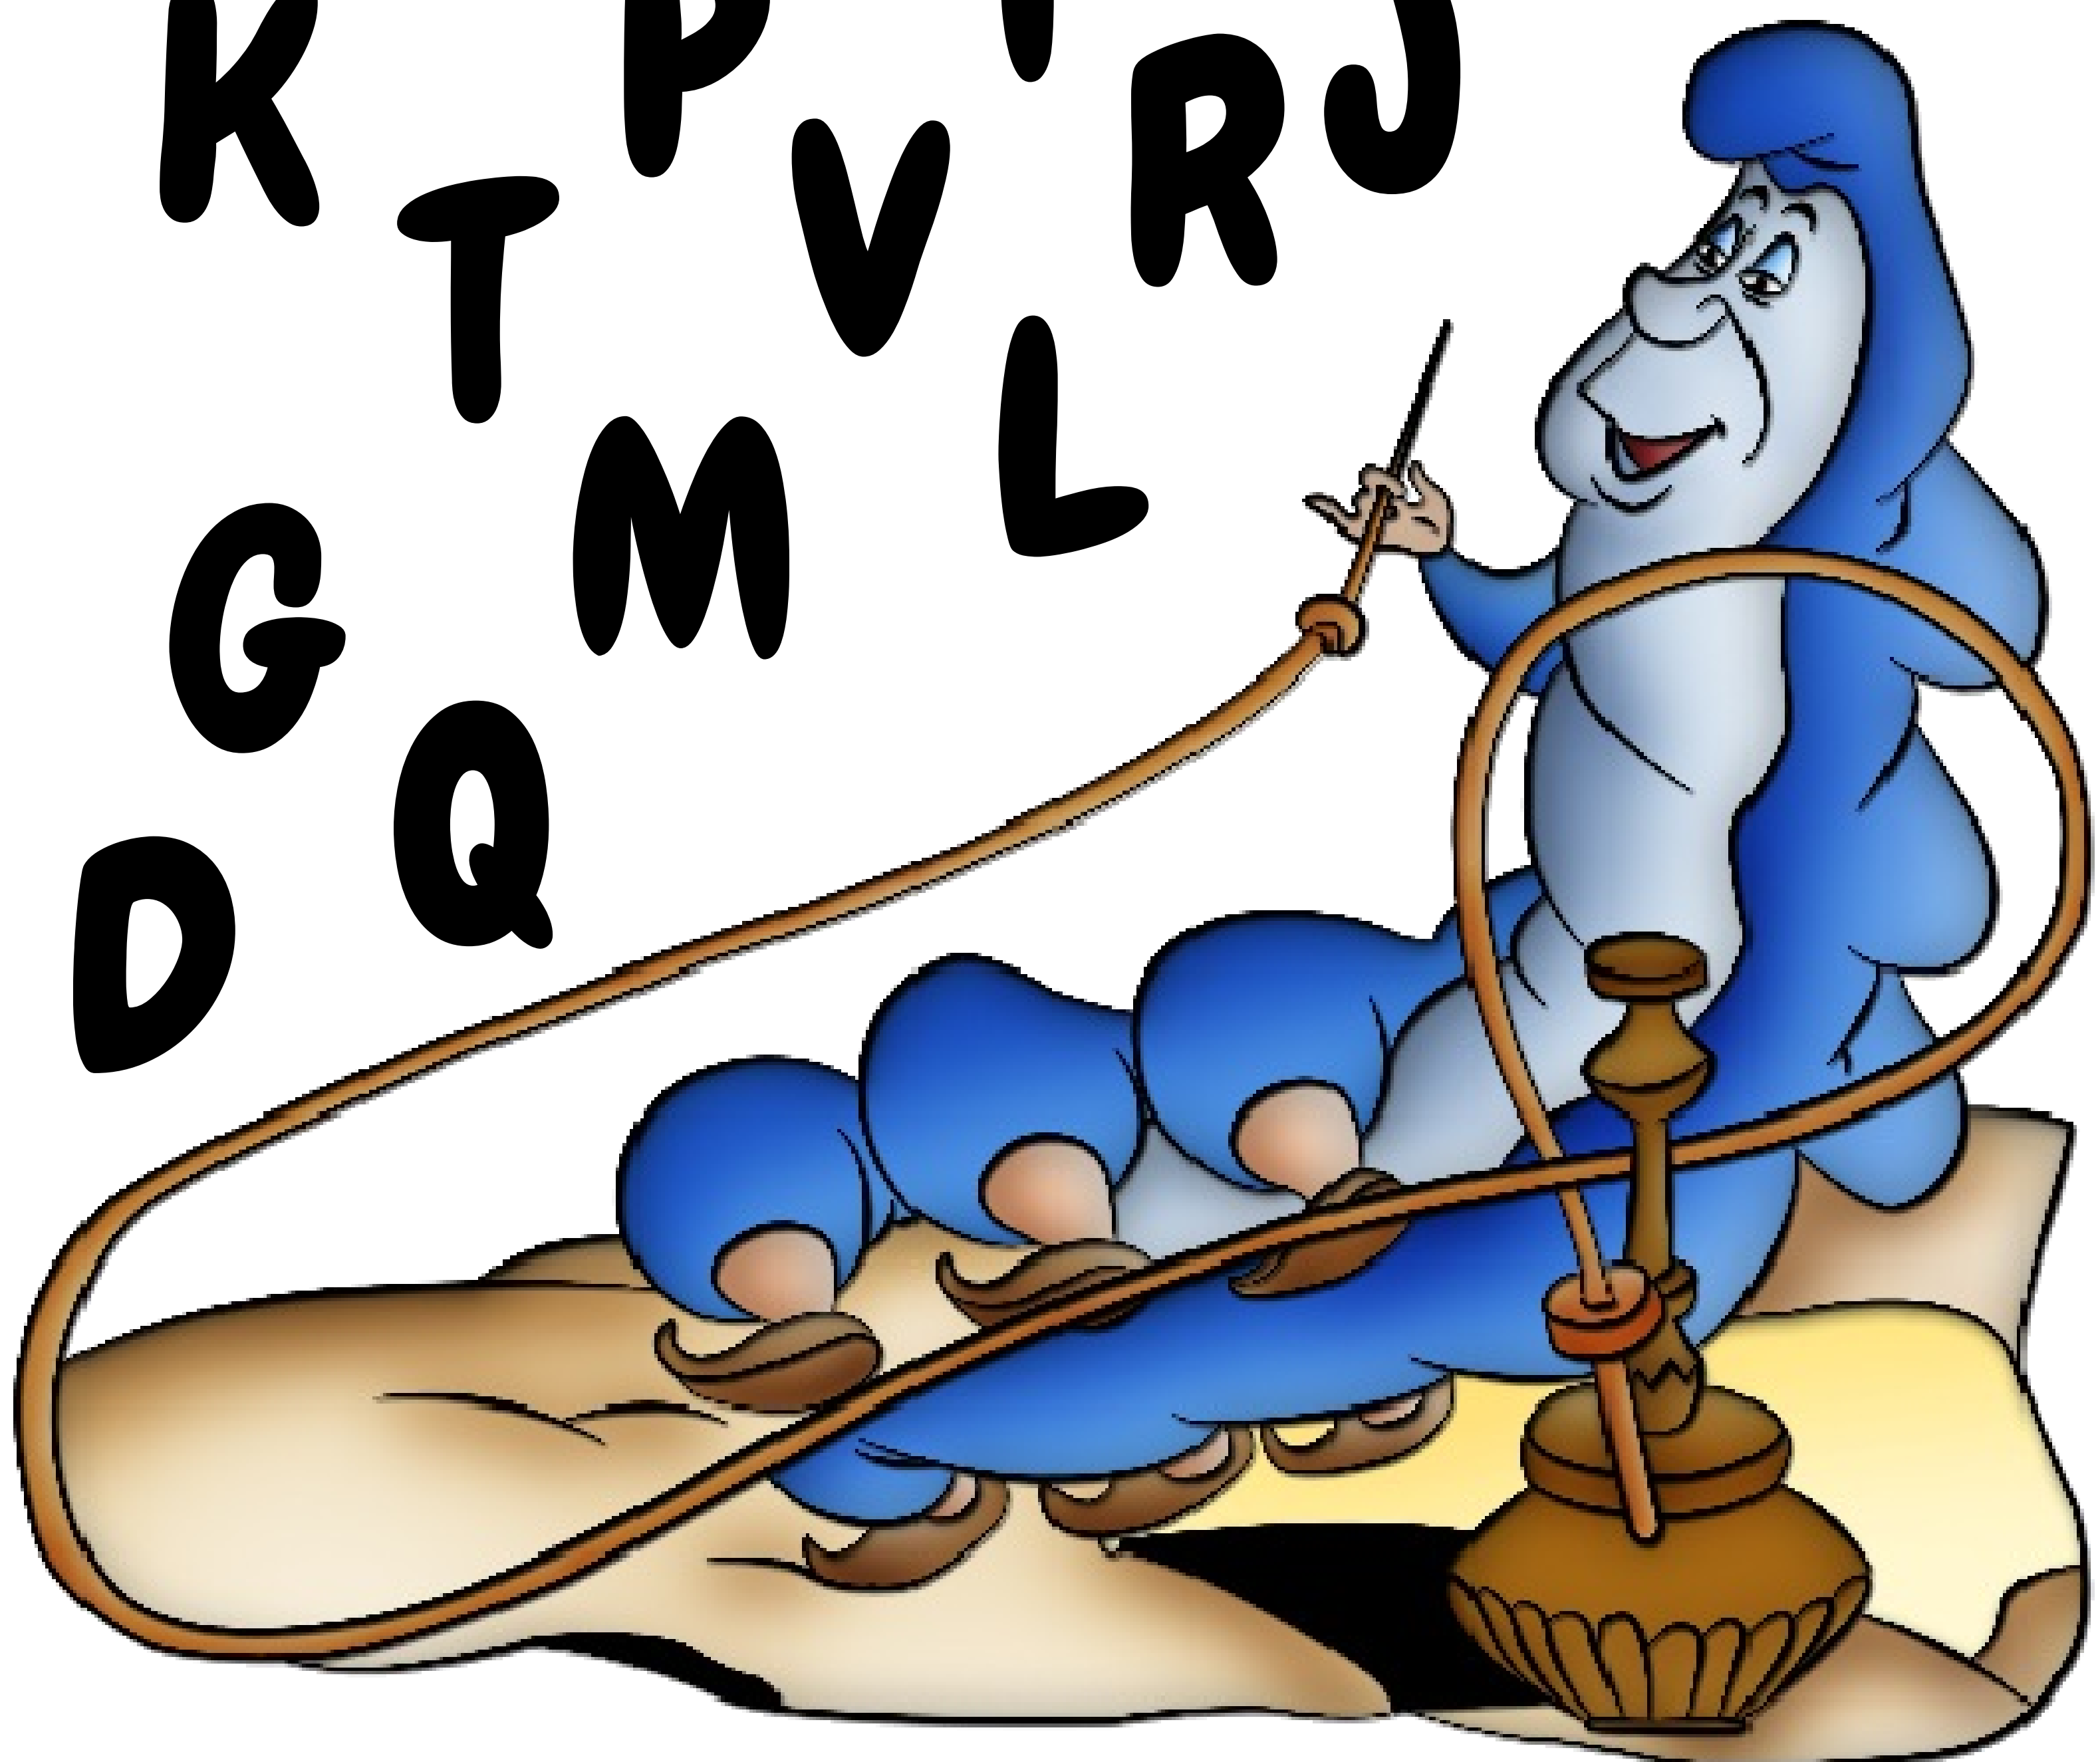

What are you counting?
